10 April 2007

Dear Children of God,

Time is moving on and mankind must reflect deeply how they stand before God. God has been merciful and very patient for a long time, giving man much time to change his path. Over the years, many souls have left the side of the 'Little Pebble' and have turned their words and their actions against him. Come back now while you still have time, to show that what I am asking you is true. Think of our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI. Jesus revealed to a seer named 'Yellow Lily,' on 20th January 2007, that something is going to happen and it is going to appear to be unfavourable, but that is not entirely so.

Jesus says: "Be at peace. Things good and bad have been pushed forward. There is a clock and it ticks away down to the midnight hour – the 12th hour. Do not be afraid, the Holy Father is to get very sick, gravely sick, but not so. It will correspond to the radiance in the sky. The one in chains will be free. The Pope will become sick, a sign of the war that comes. Jesus says: "I have given you usurpers every opportunity, every window, every door in which to respond, and you have not heeded. So I come now and claim victory for myself. Watch how quickly all is ended. You will meet My Face, know your error, and then, you can do nothing. I am about to erupt as a powerful volcano of eternal justice. There shall be a spectacular sign as an unscheduled eclipse. You ask why I am offended and I will tell you. It is that God has been insulted in these evil plans – it is the one I love, who only loves – has been eviscerated with grief at the loss of so many – the loss that She – Mother of God gave birth to as Mother of the Church – the loss that continues now to scourge the Mother through Her spouse, the two that are one in heart for the Church. You will drop as flies. Pay attention to the day that greets the day of salvation through the Morning Star. I have suffered even now for you fools because time has elapsed, but in that, a heart has been laid open and crucified in countless hurt and injustice".

2007 is the Year of Victory – Jesus says: "I am all international justice, My Eyes have seen enough – you refuse to listen. You have slapped My Face – You have harmed my friends – I know your names. The sign shall be seen – you chose to believe lies and you knew what they were – taken in by lust and greed – it will get you nowhere but perdition. The warships gather in the horizon as the world lies sleeping in their drunkenness and lewdness, off every coast they shall be seen. Each day that you delay in the course of justice increases your day of suffering. I know all of those who have caused harm and continue to do so – you shall be crushed by My Fist and your tears will not save you or move Me – moved by the one who you try to hurt, the one who acts for Me".

Sincerely yours in Christ,
