Dear Mr Kamm,

You will be pleased to hear that the Bishop of Wollongong has initiated a commission to investigate the writings and works of yourself and the so-called Order of St Charbel and asked me to direct proceedings.

The first phase of the investigation will consist of investigating your writings; the second phase will consist of personal interviews.

Bishop Wilson has shown us the numbered texts of messages you have given him and these are sufficient for our purposes, but to facilitate the investigation I would appreciate if you could send me four copies of your book and two copies of the constitutions of the order.

This phase will obviously take some time and you will be advised when a personal appearance before the commission is required.

Yours sincerely in Christ

Father Kevin Matthews
